19th Week in Ordinary Time, Year C

Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgment continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgment is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the needs of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed.

The other major way to be ready for the coming judgment is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet, which, even now, can last for a few days in the Middle East. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like.

Peter asks if this parable is meant for the apostles or for the large crowd that has gathered to listen to Jesus. Without answering Peter's question, Jesus responds with another parable about servants awaiting the return of their master. It begins with a question: "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?" This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us of the reward for the faithful follower at the heavenly banquet after the judgment. If it is addressed to the apostles, then it could also be addressed to leadership in the early Church. Either way, the parables reminds us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives. If we are doing our jobs, our reward will be great. But if we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man—eating, drinking, and making merry—we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived.

Exciting news – for the past couple of months, the St Augustine Celestial Choir has been working on a new Mass setting for our English Masses. The setting is titled “The Mass of John Carroll”, and was a special request from Fr. Godfred. St. Augustine, the great fifth-century bishop of North Africa, believed, as was common during the time, that music affected the soul and thus, could influence and determine the ethics, actions and morals of the people. He said, “Those who sing pray twice.” The words of our hymns are prayers, and when we sing them, we add to them a further dimension of honor and praise. We will begin using this new Mass Setting on Labor Day Weekend. The cantors will start introducing it to you all in August. Please plan on being at Mass 15 minutes early so that you can become familiar with this music. We have more exciting news to come in the next couple of months, so stay tuned. Please come join the St. Augustine Celestial Choir (English) at 6:30 on Tuesday nights in the Sanctuary. We'd love to have you. Sandy Ladner, Music Director

Welcome New Parishioner

You enter this church not as a stranger, but as a guest from God. We hope you will find a loving Christian community. We look forward to benefiting from your uniqueness. To register you can go to our website online, call the parish office, or sign and return a registration form located in the Narthex of the church.

Parish Building Fund

After Speaking with Rick Shockley of Solid Rock Church Furniture and Design this week, our tentative timeline has been pushed back 8-10 weeks. According to Rick, there is a shortage of chemicals used to make the blue dyes used in our fabric pattern (supply chain difficulties), and the factory is not making any blue (or maroon) fabrics at this time. This pushes our tentative start date back to October 1st.

Total Cost of Projects: $105,543.00
Collected: $24,258

Visit our adoration room located across from the Parish Office. Dedicate a committed time of silent prayer and reflection with Jesus, truly present in the exposed Most Holy Eucharist. After a busy day at work, after a hectic time in your life, in times of trouble and distress, Christ is waiting for you to spend some time with Him and to calm your fear. Come and share your joy and rest your soul in answered prayer.

We are looking for volunteers to organize the annual rummage sale! This event is a great opportunity for fellowship and service to our local community. If you are interested, please contact the Church office. If we are not able to get volunteers, we will not be able to schedule the event.

Thank you to everyone who has contributed to the Annual Catholic Appeal. St. Augustine parish target is $24,578. As of July 22, our total given is $29,020.51. We have 83 of our 184 families that have responded.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish target is $4,061 as of July 22, our total given is $4,299. We have 23 of our 40 families that responded.

Back to School Blessings

Pray for Students & Educators

God of wisdom and might,
we praise you for the wonder of our being,
for mind, body and spirit.
Be with our children as they begin a new school year.

Bless them and their teachers and staff.
Give the strength and grace as their bodies grow;
wisdom and knowledge to their minds
as they search for understanding;
and peace and zeal to their hearts.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
