16th Week in Ordinary Time, Year C

The story of Jesus in the home of Martha and Mary complements the story of the Good Samaritan, which immediately precedes it in Luke's Gospel. Both stories are unique to Luke. The story of the Samaritan opens with the words "a certain man." Today's reading opens with the words "a certain woman." The Samaritan is an example of how a disciple should see and act. Mary is an example of how a disciple should listen. Mary, a woman, is a marginalized person in society, like the Samaritan. Both do what is not expected of them. As a woman, Mary would be expected, like Martha, to prepare hospitality for a guest. Here again Jesus breaks with the social conventions of his time. Just as a Samaritan would not be a model for neighborliness, so a woman would not sit with the men around the feet of a teacher.

Both stories exemplify how a disciple is to fulfill the dual command which begins chapter 10—love of God (Mary) and love of neighbor (the Samaritan). These are the two essentials of life in the kingdom. By using the examples of a Samaritan and a woman, however, Jesus is saying something more. Social codes and boundaries were strict in Jesus' time. Yet to love God with all one's heart and one's neighbor requires breaking those rules. The Kingdom of God is a society without distinctions and boundaries between its members. It is a society that requires times for seeing and doing and also times for listening and learning at the feet of a teacher.

Family Connection

In our families and homes, we have boundaries. Some are geographical; we may have our own room or part of a room that we want others to stay out of. Parents may have home offices that are off-limits to children. Some boundaries are behavioral; children may speak one way to their friends, but they are not allowed to speak the same way to their parents or other adults. A Curfew is another type of boundary, whose purpose is to protect children's safety.

Talk about examples of boundaries in your family. For the most part, these boundaries are good. Talk about how sometimes we set up boundaries for the wrong reasons. For example, if we are angry with a sibling, we may draw a line and tell him or her to stay on his or her side. Explain that when we use boundaries to exclude others, we are being hurtful. Point out how in Jesus' time, some boundaries were used to unfairly exclude people. One example was from last week's Gospel: Samaritans. This Sunday's Gospel has another example: women. Talk about how the role of women has changed in your lifetime. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus breaks down a barrier that kept women from being disciples.

Read aloud Luke 10:38-42. Talk about how Martha is conditioned by the existing boundaries of her society, but how her sister, Mary, breaks through that boundary and becomes a disciple of Jesus. Talk about how you can work as a family to break down boundaries that separate people. Point out that when we pray the Lord's Prayer, we call God "Our Father," meaning that we are all his children; no boundaries should separate us. Conclude this time together by praying the Lord's Prayer.

Welcome New Parishioner

You enter this church not as a stranger, but as a guest from God. We hope you will find a loving Christian community. We look forward to benefiting from your uniqueness. To register you can go to our website online, call the parish office, or sign and return a registration form located in the Narthex of the church.

Sacred Music Concert on July 23
6:00 PM in Albany, GA at St. Teresa Catholic Church

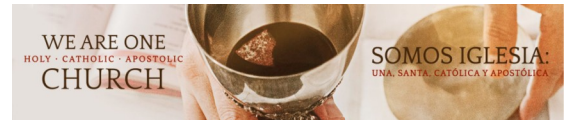

The ensemble is called "Concordia Laetitia" (The Joy of Harmony) it will last about an hour. They are a group of young professionals from Atlanta. They sing selections of traditional sacred liturgical music in beautiful polyphony. You can learn more about them and hear a bit of their music at www.concordia.org.

There is no cost to attend (a good-will donation will be taken up) and we will have a reception following in the parish hall.

Parish Building Fund

After Speaking with Rick Shockley of Solid Rock Church Furniture and Design this week, our tentative timeline has been pushed back 8-10 weeks. According to Rick, there is a shortage of chemicals used to make the blue dyes used in our fabric pattern (supply chain difficulties), and the factory is not making any blue (or maroon) fabrics at this time. This pushes our tentative start date back to October 1st.

Total Cost of Projects: $105,543.00
Collected: $22,708

Visit our adoration room located across from the Parish Office. Dedicate a committed time of silent prayer and reflection with Jesus, truly present in the exposed Most Holy Eucharist. After a busy day at work, after a hectic time in your life, in times of trouble and distress, Christ is waiting for you to spend some time with Him and to calm your fear. Come and share your joy and rest your soul in answered prayer.

Thank you to everyone who has contributed to the Annual Catholic Appeal. St. Augustine parish target is $24,578. As of July 14, our total given is $28,809.60. We have 83 of our 184 families that have responded. St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish target is $4,064 as of July 14, our total given is $4,289. We have 23 of our 40 families that responded.

Blessing of the Backpacks sponsored by St. Augustine Youth Group. Sending our students back to school with a little extra protection. Fr. Godfred will provide the blessing after each Mass the weekend of August 6 /7.. All students are invited to participate, day care- college! The youth group has a special token for all who attend.

PICNIC AT THE PASTORAL CENTER

Picnic at the Pastoral Center on July 20th from 5:30-9:00pm

This event is for people around the diocese to come to our home base at the Catholic Pastoral Center in Savannah (2170 E Victory Drive) for an afternoon of music, food, fun and community! We are excited to invite people to our office and hope to see all of your smiling faces there!! For more information please visit diosav.org/picnic or call the parish office.
