18th Week in Ordinary Time, Year C

In Chapter 12 of Luke's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples and the crowd on how to be ready for the coming judgment. A crowd of many thousands has gathered to hear Jesus. At first he speaks only to the disciples, reminding them that it is not persecution they should fear but the judgment that is coming for all who do not acknowledge the Son of Man. Suddenly a man in the crowd shouts out to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." He seems to have grown tired of Jesus speaking only to the disciples. Jesus offers the man no help. Instead he uses the question to teach what, in light of the coming judgment, life really consist of.

Jesus tells the crowd a parable. A rich man's lands have yielded more crops than expected. His response is not to consider how he might share all the extra food with others but to wonder how he can possibly store it all. He has what he thinks is a brilliant idea: to tear down his present barns and build larger ones. Then he will have many things stored up for years of eating, drinking, and making merry.

"You fool" is God's response to this man because that very night his life will be taken away. To whom will everything belong then, God asks. The rich man's world is small, just him and his possessions, and now he learns that he is to lose his life. What good are his possessions now? Jesus states the moral of the story. This is how it will be for everyone who stores up treasure for himself or herself but is not rich in what matters to God.

Centuries later St. Gregory the Great taught that when we care for the needs of the poor, we are giving them what is theirs, not ours. We are not just performing works of mercy; we are paying a debt of justice. Life does not consist in possessions but in sharing what we possess with others. The goods of the earth have been given to everyone.

Exciting news – for the past couple of months, the St Augustine Celestial Choir has been working on a new Mass setting for our English Masses. The setting is titled “The Mass of John Carroll”, and was a special request from Fr. Godfred. St. Augustine, the great fifth-century bishop of North Africa, believed, as was common during the time, that music affected the soul and thus, could influence and determine the ethics, actions and morals of the people. He said,

“Those who sing pray twice.” The words of our hymns are prayers, and when we sing them, we add to them a further dimension of honor and praise. We will begin using this new Mass Setting on Labor Day Weekend. The cantors will start introducing it to you all in August.

Please plan on being at Mass 15 minutes early so that you can become familiar with this music. We have more exciting news to come in the next couple of months, so stay tuned. Please come join the St. Augustine Celestial Choir (English) at 6:30 on Tuesday nights in the Sanctuary. We'd love to have you. Sandy Ladner, Music Director

We are looking for volunteers to organize the annual rummage sale! This event is a great opportunity for fellowship and service to our local community. If you are interested, please contact the Church office. If we are not able to get volunteers, we will not be able to schedule the event.

Parish Building Fund

After Speaking with Rick Shockley of Solid Rock Church Furniture and Design this week, our tentative timeline has been pushed back 8-10 weeks. According to Rick, there is a shortage of chemicals used to make the blue dyes used in our fabric pattern (supply chain difficulties), and the factory is not making any blue (or maroon) fabrics at this time. This pushes our tentative start date back to October 1st.

Total Cost of Projects: $105,543.00
Collected: $23,283

Visit our adoration room located across from the Parish Office. Dedicate a committed time of silent prayer and reflection with Jesus, truly present in the exposed Most Holy Eucharist. After a busy day at work, after a hectic time in your life, in times of trouble and distress, Christ is waiting for you to spend some time with Him and to calm your fear. Come and share your joy and rest your soul in answered prayer.
