I am grateful today for the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States giving each state the ability to legislate the availability of abortion services. As Catholics, we honor and celebrate that every human person is made in the image and likeness of God. Our Church and our Pro-Life Ministries are committed to helping pregnant women, assisting and walking with them in their time of need. We can help to provide resources to bring hope and comfort.

For those who have experienced the pain of abortion, I realize that today's news may trigger memories and feelings due to past decisions. Please know that the Church is here to accompany women and men in a journey toward healing.

As we have had one law which has governed our land for almost 50 years, each of our 50 states will now have the ability to determine the law for their residents. We must continue to be dedicated to building a Culture of Life in all areas of our country, ensuring that the dignity of every human person is respected from conception until natural death.

Finally, I ask that we remember that here in these United States, we are 'one nation under God.' As today's news may spark unrest, I pray that we can be united in peace as a people, recognizing not our differences but our common dignity given to us by our Creator.

BISHOP STEPHEN D. PARKES

Gregorian chant is the earliest form of music in the Catholic Church. It is an unaccompanied sacred song in Latin (and occasionally Greek) of the Roman Catholic Church. Gregorian chant developed mainly in western and central Europe during the 9th and 10th centuries, with later additions and redactions.

Music has a way of piercing into the deep parts of our soul, that assists in our expression and response to God and to the church. Singing helps unites us to the Church. The gospel alone unites believers to one another. However, music is a tool that allows us to do so.

The Second Vatican Council boldly proclaimed that the Church's treasury of sacred music is of more value than any other of her artistic contributions.

St. Augustine, the great fifth-century bishop of North Africa, was concerned with the philosophical and mathematical principles integral to enjoying music. His belief, as was common during the time, was that music affected the soul and, thus, could influence and determine the ethics, actions and morals of the people. He said, "Those who sing pray twice." The words of our hymns are prayers, and when we sing them, we add to them a further dimension of honor and praise.

Come join the St. Augustine Celestial Choir (English) at 6:30 on Tuesday nights in the Sanctuary. We'd love to have you.

Family Connection

Families teach a sense of togetherness and community. It is in the family that we learn that we are dependent on one another and where we learn to work together and live together. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus sends out the 72 disciples in pairs, a sign that we are to work together to serve the mission of the Kingdom of God.

Talk about all the ways that your family works together. Talk about the various chores and tasks that family members work on together to accomplish in order to keep the household running smoothly.

Read aloud Luke 10:1-12,17-20. Talk about why it was important that Jesus sent his disciples out in pairs. Discuss ways that your family can work more closely together to support one another and to make the household run more smoothly. Pray for the strength to overcome the temptation to be too individualistic and to recognize the need for working together as a family.

Visit our adoration room located across from the Parish Office. Dedicate a committed time of silent prayer and reflection with Jesus, truly present in the exposed Most Holy Eucharist. After a busy day at work, after a hectic time in your life, in times of trouble and distress, Christ is waiting for you to spend some time with Him and to calm your fear. Come and share your joy and rest your soul in answered prayer.
