Notes from the Choir

Welcome to our section of the bulletin!

Did you know that singing is proven to be good for your health? Here are just a few fun facts:

1. Singing improves mental health by stimulating multiple areas of the brain at the same time, increasing memory function, focus, and alertness.
2. Singing lowers stress and tension.
3. Singing increases the immune system.
4. Singing improves breathing; it is an aerobic activity that increases overall health.
5. Singing helps with chronic pain.

There are many other health benefits as well, so the question is, why aren't you in choir?

Come join the St. Augustine Celestial Choir (English) at 6:30 on Tuesday nights in the Sanctuary. We'd love to have you.

Sandy Ladner, Music Director

The Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade in a 6-3 vote, eliminating the constitutional right to an abortion in the U.S.

Please bring your baby bottles back and place them in the collection basket or narthex. Thank you for all of your support for this event."

TODAY'S SECOND COLLECTION:

Peters Pence

June 26

Today is the Peter's Pence Collection, a worldwide collection that supports the work of the Universal Church, including the work of the Holy See and the charitable works of Pope Francis. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a sign of mercy to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be Generous today. For more information, visit www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html.

Family Connection

Parents are always striving to help their children to set priorities. Children need to learn to finish homework before watching TV or going out to play. They need to know that they have to finish their chores before they can go out with their friends. They need to know that paying attention to curfews for their safety is more important than being popular.

As a family, talk about these examples of setting priorities. Share examples of how you learned to prioritize as you were maturing. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus talks about the importance of making him the number-one priority in our lives.

Read aloud Luke 9:51-62. Talk about how going to Sunday Mass as a family is an important way of keeping God at the center of our lives. Talk about other ways that the family can make Jesus a priority.

Visit our adoration room located across from the Parish Office. Dedicate a committed time of silent prayer and reflection with Jesus, truly present in the exposed Most Holy Eucharist. After a busy day at work, after a hectic time in your life, in times of trouble and distress, Christ is waiting for you to spend some time with Him and to calm your fear. Come and share your joy and rest your soul in answered prayer.
