We congratulate Miguel Gutierrez on the occasion of his ordination to the diaconate. The word deacon derives from the Greek diakonia, meaning "service," thereby indicating that a deacon is called like Christ to be a servant. The Order of Deacon has three essential functions: the proclamation of the Gospel, the service of the liturgy, and the administration of charitable works. In particular, the deacon may assist the bishop and the priests in a variety of liturgical functions: Deacons may baptize, witness the exchange of vows and bless marriages, distribute Holy Communion, impart benediction with the Blessed Sacrament, bring Viaticum to the dying, read Sacred Scripture to the faithful and especially proclaim the Gospel, preach, officiate at funerals and burials, and administer the sacramental's (blessing of material objects or actions to signal their association with the sacraments and so to incite reverence during acts of worship and devotion). They should also dedicate themselves to other charitable works, particularly within the parish community. (Confer the Catechism, No. 1569-70, and the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, No 29).

Catholic Communication Campaign

June 5

Your support of the CCC helps bring the richness of the Church's social teachings to life through engaging media.

Prayer & Action is a Catholic mission experience hosted by the Diocese of Savannah. This week-long camp gives high school students (incoming freshman through outgoing seniors) the opportunity to go on mission in their local community while growing deeper in their faith. Students are able to meet other young people from around the diocese as well as receive 25 service hours for the week. There will be three Sunday evening to Friday morning sessions offered in two locations: June 12-17 or June 19-24 @ St. Peter the Apostle, Savannah; June 26-July 1 @ Aquinas High school, Augusta. Find out more: <https://diosav.org/youth/events/prayer-and-action-mission-high-school>. Register at dioreg.org/register. For questions, email cebberwein@diosav.org

Family Connection

Any family that has tried to sit down to a family dinner or packed the car for a trip has heard children argue at least once about who should sit where. To sit next to someone, especially if that person is important, is to have a place of honor. Jesus has this place of honor, seated now at the right hand of the Father (as we say in the Nicene Creed and the Apostles' Creed), but there's more to this metaphor than where Jesus sits in relation to God. To be in the place of honor is also to be in a place of power. Knowing people in powerful places can be very helpful. Children remind us of this each time we are called upon to referee a conflict. Jesus, honored now at God's right hand, is a powerful ally for us.

As you gather as a family, recall a time when there was a discussion, or perhaps even an argument, about where people were going to sit. Talk about why it might be important to a person to sit in a particular place. Mention that in this Sunday's Gospel we learn about Jesus' place in heaven. Read together Luke 24:46-53. Talk about how in the Creed we describe Jesus' place in heaven as "seated at the right hand of the Father." Discuss what we might learn about the relationship between God and Jesus from today's Gospel and from the Creed and what we can learn about Jesus' relationship to us. Observe that one of the things we learn is that Jesus continues to help us from this place of honor in heaven. Pray together the Apostles' Creed.

Visit our adoration room located across from the Parish Office. Dedicate a committed time of silent prayer and reflection with Jesus, truly present in the exposed Most Holy Eucharist. After a busy day at work, after a hectic time in your life, in times of trouble and distress, Christ is waiting for you to spend some time with Him and to calm your fear. Come and share your joy and rest your soul in answered prayer.

Upcoming Solemnities

- June 5: Pentecost Sunday
- June 12: The Most Holy Trinity
- June 19: The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)
