Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Today as a Church, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel we proclaim shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Savior of all. Luke's Gospel has been loaded with surprises: the poor are rich, sinners find salvation, the Kingdom of God is found in our midst. Here we see the greatest surprise of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Savior of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross, perhaps in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. As the leaders jeer, the thief crucified by his side recognizes Jesus as Messiah and King, and finds salvation.

Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgment. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all.

Family Connection

Understanding today's Feast of Christ the King may be particularly challenging. While we may not have a direct experience of kings or royalty, we have some sense of what these mean. We know that royalty have sovereignty over their kingdom. We know that those who are subjects to royalty offer them allegiance and honor. Christ is King in a way that is different from traditional understandings of royalty. Christ's kingship extends to all places, all people, and all times. Christ manifests his kingship through his death on the Cross, in which he offers salvation to all.

Recall with your children stories that you may have read about royalty. Talk with your children about what they have learned from these stories about what it means to be a king. Talk about what they have learned from these stories about what it means to be a subject.

Tell your children that this Sunday is the last Sunday in the Church Year, and on this Sunday, we celebrate a special feast called the Feast of Christ the King. Read today's Gospel, Luke 23:35-43. Reflect together on how the various people in this Gospel respond to Jesus on the Cross. Who in this Gospel recognizes Jesus as King? (the thief) What does Jesus promise the thief as a result? (The thief will be with Jesus in paradise.)

Talk about how your family will recognize and honor Christ the King. Pray together the Lord's Prayer and ask God to help your family to act in ways that show you recognize and honor Christ as King.

Applications and envelopes for those interested in having their names put on the Giving Tree are located in the Narthex

All applications need to be turned in by November 20.

Questions, contact Judy Harden @ (229) 221-2918

Please join the fellowship group on Monday, November 21 from 5:30-7 pm for some wonderful prayer, faith, and friendship at the Taylor home, 109 Fawn Circle.

We'd love to see you there!
Please contact Missy Taylor (229)403-7243 with any questions.

Hourly Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, a prayerful and beautiful opportunity to spend special time in quiet reflection with our Lord, is held here at St. Augustine's every First Friday of the month.

It begins at 9:00am, pauses at Noon for Mass, resumes at 1:00pm and then closes with Benediction at 6:00pm.

Volunteers come for an hour (or more) during those times for individual meditation and to offer prayers especially for vocations. We need more volunteers for this important ministry!

Please volunteer for an hour of your choosing or let us know if you would be willing to substitute when needed.

Call, text or email Beth Crawford to volunteer or get further information. Thanks and God bless!
